

Colorado Crossroads and Molten USA, Inc. are excited to continue their title sponsorship agreement for the 2020 Colorado Crossroads Junior National Qualifier at the Denver Convention Center on March 7-9 & March 13-15.

Colorado Crossroads, one of the largest girls' volleyball tournaments in the nation, is entering its 34th year and has been partnered with Molten since 2005. Molten's acclaimed Super Touch Volleyball will be used as the official tournament game ball.

"Molten takes great pride in continuing our title sponsorship role for the 2020 Colorado Crossroads qualifier," said Molten USA president Melissa Dawson. "Colorado Crossroads and Molten share the same commitment to excellence on and off the court, that creates a first-class experience for players, coaches, and parents."

"Crossroads is excited to continue our long-standing partnership with Molten," Front Range Executive Director Kay Rogness said. "Molten is a well-known, respected company that represents top of the line products and an exceptional brand. We are looking forward to working together with them again this year."

About Colorado Crossroads

The Molten Colorado Crossroads is a USA Volleyball Girls' Junior National Qualifier for the USA Volleyball National Championship. Crossroads, which is hosted by Denver-area Front Range Volleyball Club, occurs annually in Denver, Colorado, using the entire Colorado Convention Center exhibition area of 600,000 square feet on two consecutive weekends. As one of the largest girls' volleyball tournaments in the country, Crossroads will host more than 1,500 teams from 32 states this year, with more than 60,000 attendees over the 6-days of tournament play.
